

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: March 2, 2026

At The Family Room, relationships matter — and that includes how we care for your information.

When you share your name and email with us through our website or through Meta (Facebook or Instagram) Lead Ads, we use that information to stay connected with you. This includes sending our newsletter, program updates, event invitations, and other ways you can support families in our community.

We will only use your information for communication from The Family Room. We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with outside parties.

We take reasonable steps to keep your information secure. While no online system is ever completely secure, we are committed to handling your information responsibly.

You can unsubscribe from our emails at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link in any message.

If you have questions, we're happy to connect. Please contact The Family Room at info@familyroomoregon.org.
